5. [redacted] Talked with Senator Hugh Scott on the case of [redacted] Earlier Senator Scott had been alerted by Mr. [redacted] (following discussion with General Carter) that if the Senator were considering the situation involving a clearance or permanent position there were some facts which the Senator should know. 25X1
25X1 Consequently, Senator Scott did call Mr. [redacted] last night and asked for a further briefing. I furnished the Senator the essential facts and he readily understood the situation and seemed to completely understand the various implications. He indicated to me that definitely he would not hire him permanently although he might use him in spot situations. He expressed his appreciation to the Agency for having given him a fill in. 25X1

6. [redacted] Met Flemming, in the office of Senator J. William Fulbright, called to say that he had received an emergency call from [redacted] whose son apparently is employed by the Agency. [redacted] asked Fulbright's office if they could arrange to have a message passed to her son, [redacted] to telephone her in [redacted] Tennessee. [redacted] is presently undergoing training [redacted] Arrangements were made through the Office of Training and [redacted] placed the call to his mother within the hour. Fulbright's office was so advised. 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1

7. [redacted] Talked with Dan O'Brien, in the office of Senator Bourke B. Hickenlooper. I referred the conversation which the Senator had with Mr. McCone concerning ball lightning. I advised Mr. O'Brien that we were ready to brief the Senator on this at any time at his convenience. Mr. O'Brien said he would so notify the Senator but did not think this could be accomplished until sometime Wednesday. We are to call O'Brien again at that time. 25X1
